

LIMASSOL CY • NEWCASTLE UK

Nasser Alazzawi is one of the first promoter DJs in the U.K. to bring regular daytime electronic music events to nightclubs in his hometown, Newcastle upon Tyne (U.K.). Recently celebrating it's 3rd birthday PROGRESS:ON, continues to grow, attracting new fans from across the country.

Nasser has enjoyed booking artists and playing alongside his heroes. PROGRESS:ON has worked with underground powerhouses such as Anthony Pappa (SELADOR), Paul Thomas (FSOE UV), and Lexicon Avenue (FORENSIC RECORDS). In addition to this he has reignited a passion for many music fans by booking regional DJs who paved the way for his generation in the early 2000s. Scott Bradford (SHINDIG), Tony Hutchinson (Global Underground) and Richard Tulip (PROMISE) packed the dancefloor and reunited friends who had not stepped in a club in 15 years.

Recognising the way dance music has been steeped in tradition, Nasser tends to leave classics in the past with a focus the future of House and Techno music. He has a unique way of working with new artists and professional local talent who value being in the moment, personal connection, and movement as one - especially important for those among us who are shy dancers like he is.

Nasser's sound leans into a positive vista, from a unique blend of upbeat tribal, rhythmic house & techno inspired by the connections with strangers he has experienced where music has unified an entire room – what he believes clubbing should always feel like.

If you would like to discuss your upcoming event or book Nasser, please feel free to get in touch!
